0:01 - We arrived without anything at all. No money, no clothes. Well, we only took the most necessary stuff. We moved away from Donetsk due to the well-known events, in connection with the war in Donbass. I was pregnant with the second child.

Now we have already began a little bit of a new life. I began to feel easier, and became ready to do something. I decided to start a blog. An online blog for moms and pregnant women.

0:038 - I write about pregnancy, about childbirth. I publish all sorts of advice to mothers with children. I have written my first post recently. And everyone liked it! There were all these likes and thanks. And so it went on a little bit, step by step. Now I try to develop all this. I understand that I have a lot of knowledge that I would like to share. Something I can help other people with.

1:08 - At the moment my main dream is to move to my own house. I would like to have it somewhere in Kiev or in the Kiev region, because at the moment these places have become my second home and I can see here many opportunities for self-realization.

4/ Russian Script:

Рассказывает Светлана Яцук:

- Мы приехали вообще без ничего. Без денег, без вещей. Ну какие-то там самые элементарные взяли. Переехали мы их Донецка в связи с известными всем событиями, в связи с войной на Донбассе. Я была беременна вторым ребенком. Уже по чуть-чуть начали приходить в себя, мне начало становиться как-то легче, начала брать себя в руки, чем-то заниматься. Решила завести свой блог. Тоже для мам, для беременных. Там я пишу про беременность, про роды, всевозможные советы мамам с детьми и я написала первый пост, наконец-то, выставила его. Всем понравилось. Вот эти все вот эти лайки, благодарности. И оно так по чуть-чуть поехало. Сейчас я это все стараюсь развивать.

Я понимаю что у меня много знаний, которые я хотела бы передавать, которые могут помочь остальным. А на данный момент моя главная мечта - это переехать в свой дом. Хотелось бы своего жилья где-то в Киеве или в Киевской области, потому что на данный момент эти места стали как мой второй дом и я вижу здесь много возможностей для самореализации.
