SLUGLINE:	Being 20, Optimistic Lebanese Job Seeker
HEADLINE:	In this report we highlight a problem suffered by all Lebanese young men. Roger, 20 years old, has entered the university, and he is looking for a work which can help him achieve his independence and support his family.
DATELINE:	Beirut, Lebanon - 03/01/2018
SCRIPT:	I am Roger, a young Lebanese guy. I am trying to find work. I finished my high school, and started studying in a University. I am trying to find a job to support my family who worked hard and educated me. I tried to find a job but all the doors are closed, because of the salary, unfortunately Lebanon has a lot of crises that prevent you from getting a job. I have worked in tourism places, clothes shops although they are not my specialization. I can't believe that I can't find a job. Because when I apply to a vacancy, the employer said that he prefers to employ a foreign worker, gives me more productivity with a lower salary. I am asking the employer: I do not deserve this job? Where is the State in this issue? What is the state trying to do?

	I say to all the young Lebanese people who look for a job; don't give up, think positively, we will find a solution to all our problems and all the stories, and make sure that we will find a job and achieve all our aspirations.
