SLUGLINE:	Being 20, seminarian helps people with disabilities.
HEADLINE:	This story is about a seminarian. He has decided to become a priest spontaneously and still he doesn't regret. Besides his studying he visits the geriatric pension and helps people with disabilities. It is very hard morally, but he feels that he has to do it. He strongly believes in the will of God and during the studying he understood that he is needed by people. So he must devote oneself to people.

	00:49 -00:51 I'm going to a boarding house for the second year in a row. 00:52 - 00:57 when I first arrived here, I thought I would not go back there anymore. Very difficult. 00:59 - 01:04 here you have to catechize people who are much older than you 01:05 - 01:07 they often know more than you 01:08 - 01:11 they have 100% more experience than you 01:12 - 01:14 and you must explain to them that God loves them 01:15 - 01:21 But it's too hard when you realize that this person has been left entirely by everyone, even his family. 01:23 - 01:27 it's very difficult even to wash him, the disabled, or to shave 01:28 - 01:31 not difficult even physically - it is hard psychologically 01:32 - 01:37 it is a kind of medical chaplaincy. I do not know how to say it correctly. 01:44 - 01:46 I have a sort of pipe dream, to some extent 01:47 - 01:53 I want to serve at least in a small parish, have a small community 01:54 - 01:55 where I can preach Christ 01:56 - 01:58 and that I could do it 2:00 That`s all
