SLUGLINE:	Being 20, Creating A Workplace in Jordan
HEADLINE:	The story of Ahmad Al Abdullah and how he created his workplace in spite of his Public Administration study background.
DATELINE:	Amman, Jordan – 30/09/2018
SCRIPT:	00:00:13 – 00:00:18 Hello, I am Ahmad Al Abdullah. I am 28 years old and I am very happy to tell you my story. 00:00:18 – 00:00:26 After I finished my studies at Yarmouk University I tried to work in my field of study but I did not work in the same field, I worked in multiple fields. 00:00:26 – 00:00:35 My studies were public administration, but currently my job is to print advertising material. Specialized in printing on T-shirts, cups and others. 00:00:36 – 00:00:45 I am currently in a place that has nothing to do with my studies but I found myself created and succeeded more than my work in my field of study. 00:00:46 – 00:00:51 At the age of twenty, we all have many ideas. We have concerns that we want to apply.

	00:00:52 – 00:00:57 Better to think outside the box. Let us apply these ideas. 00:00:57 – 00:01:01 In a second way, it changed the usual way. 00:01:02 – 00:01:13 The topic is that it is not necessary that you work and innovate in your field of specialization. You can hire workers in another field that has nothing to do with your university degree and it's a gimmick, and that's what happened to me. I created my work. 00:01:14 – 00:01:20 You, too, can walk another way, new and different and invented it in a distinctive way.
