SLUGLINE:	Houssam succeeds in his studies and martial sports
HEADLINE:	Houssam is a young Libyan who has succeeded in his studies and martial sports despite wars going on. He has won championships in Libya and internationally in Taekwondo and kickboxing. He also helps his father to train the children.
DATELINE:	Al-khums, Libya - 20/07/2019
SCRIPT:	00:06 – 00:14 My name is Hossam Youssef Jaroud from Al Khums city, I'm 20 years old, International player in the sport of Taekwondo and International player in the sport of kickboxing. 00:15 – 00:21 I started my career in this game since childhood under the supervision of my father who taught, encouraged and motivated me until I reached this level. 00:29 – 00:53 The first championship I got, was in 2012. I've got the first ranking in Libya in the game of Taekwondo This was the first turning point in my sports career and thanks God, I participated in many other local and international tournaments and the last one was the World Championship clubs for kickboxing in Jordan where I got the first order and the gold medal. 01:00 – 01:11 My main interest is the practice of this sport because I love it and spend with it most of my time, either I exercise and prepare for the championships or help my father in training the youth to practice this game.

	00:13 – 01:29 I make a great effort to organize the time between studies and the practice of taekwondo/ kickboxing. But with the help of my friends in the university, thanks God, I was able to overcome on this problem. 01:31 – 01:40 My goals and ambitions since childhood are to raise the flag of Libya on the podiums locally, or in Arab and international level.
