SLUGLINE:	Being 20 saving crocodiles in southern Egypt
HEADLINE:	Fatima is in her twenties, from a Nubian village in southern Egypt, launched an initiative in her village that relies on hunting crocodiles, to release the crocodiles in the Nile and not catch them in order to keep the Nile crocodile from extinction. In the Nubian village "West Suhail", "predatory crocodiles" turned into "pets", as a house is not without breeding these crocodiles of all ages, some believe that they protect their homes from envy, but the majority of the population lives on hunting and raising crocodiles, the number.
