SLUGLINE:	Young volunteer helping with the homeless meals and hygiene
HEADLINE:	The smile of a homeless man could make me happy and smiling to the other is a virtue of this life "says Younes Mouhtaram, young 25 years old, graduate of a master's in management organizations, and a volunteer activist since 2016 at JOOD, an association born out of a spirit of benevolence towards the most vulnerable citizens
DATELINE:	Casablanca, Morocco - 15/06/2020
SCRIPT:	00: 00 00: 12 my name is Younes Mouhtaram, I am 25 years old and I am project manager within the JOOD association. 00: 12 00: 22 The project I am leading concerns a shower truck which is the first shower truck dedicated to homeless people in the Arab world and in Africa 00:25. 00:36 Helping others is a therapy, over time, and seeing the homeless day after day you discover that you become someone who gives them a rather special joy 00: 52 01: 24 I can't imagine the rest of my days without volunteering, we live in a cruel world and in which there are a large part of the people who have lost their rights the most needy, who have lost their dignity and who need to be pushed by people and who need help in order to change their situation and move forward
