SLUGLINE:	A peace maker in a football field.
HEADLINE:	North and South Sudan are friendly rivals not in war but a football match.
DATELINE:	Cairo, Egypt - May, 2020
SCRIPT:	00:00:00 To 00:10:00  Voice over of Boulus, the football coach, training children in the field.            Humanity is what drove me to find a way to make peace even if only in a small area where I have control. 00:10:00 To 00:16:00  Voice over of Boulus, the football coach, training children in the field.            My name is Boulus Ismail Alkera and I am 28 years old. 00:00:20 TO 00:00:28  Interview with Boulus, the football coach, in his house.            We have an academy called "Nubia Roots". We founded it in 2016. 00:00:30 TO 00:00:45  Voice over of Boulus, the football coach, training children in the field.

	I founded this initiative with a friend of mine and other people liked the idea, adopted it and turned it into an academy in different parts of Cairo. 00:00:46 TO 00:00:56  Interview with Boulus, the football coach, in his house.          The whole thing started only with 12 kids, but the numbers increased as we go and now we have almost 300 children in Nasr City only. 00:01:02 TO 00:01:10  Voice over of Boulus, the football coach, training children in the field.          As refugees displaced by wars, we longed for peaceful setups. 00:01:13 TO 00:01:37  Voice over of Boulus, the football coach, training children in the field.          The beauty of sports is that it has no county. Sports make children from both South and North Sudan play together. All nationalities for that matter can come together and play the sports transcending borders and nationalities. The one thing that unite these children is their love for the game. 00:01:38 TO 00:02:00  Interview with Boulus, the football coach, in his house.          During this corona pandemic, the children still communicate with me via social media through their parents' phones. They tell me that they miss me, but to be honest, I miss them too.
